REVIEWS ARE IN

Friday, 08/07 on The Monster Channel

Clarissa Jacobson offered to the world:

A Very Important Film.

The reviews just speak for themselves.

From America.

T. Edison says:

"The Film was Very Important and by watching, I felt as though a light had illuminated above my head"

British resident Warren de La Rue exclaims:

"A Very Important Film indeed, I felt as though a vacuum sealed filament lit above my head. LONG before it did for T. Edison from America"!

German inventor Otto von Guericke tells the world:

"The Film is Very Important and seemed to generate a feeling of static electricity throughout"

Edwin Drake, a well driller from Pennsylvania is heard:

"This Very Important Film has provided fuel for thought, and more"

There it is fans of fun and all good stuff.

A Very Important Film turns out to be, uh, A Very Important Film!
